PETITIONS PROCEDURE

The duty of the Committee for Redress of Grievances is to consider petitions for the redress of grievances submitted to the House pursuant to Part I, Articles 31 and 32 of the New Hampshire Constitution. All petitions for redress of grievances to the House must be submitted by a member of the House, and clearly and succinctly state the grievance and a proposed legislative remedy. After hearing from the member sponsoring the petition, it shall be the duty of the committee chair to determine if any petition is the proper subject of a public hearing and to limit hearings as appropriate.

1. A citizen who has been aggrieved by a government entity may request a legislator to sponsor a petition for redress of grievance. The Sponsor must ascertain the following:
 - Assurance that complaint is with a government entity and not a private dispute.
 - Parties aggrieved are in agreement to pursue petition
 - Relief being sought is something legislature can grant
 - Parties pursued alternative administrative, judicial or legislative remedies
2. The legislative sponsor shall file a petition drafting request with the Office of Legislative Services which shall include:
 - Name of Petitioner (aggrieved party) including address and government entity including address
 - Succinct summary of grievance including legislative remedies being sought
3. The completed petition shall be reviewed for acceptance by the Chairman of the Redress of Grievances committee to insure that the petition meets all criteria including ethics issues pursuant to Legislative Ethics Committee INTERPRETIVE RULING 2012-#3, NOVEMBER 14, 2012. After bill deadlines, introduction must be authorized by the House Rules Committee.
4. Upon acceptance of the petition, the following shall occur:
 - Copies of the petition will be available at the House Sergeant-at-Arms office.
 - Notice shall be sent to affected parties named in petition.
 - Petition hearing shall be scheduled in the House Calendar.
 - Petition shall be posted on the General Court webpage.
 - 3 - 5 page description for committee members as early as possible prior to initial hearing.
5. The public hearings shall be convened by the chairman for the following purposes:
 - Introduction of the petition by the legislative sponsor
 - Opportunity for the Respondent/affected parties to address the petition
 - Members of the public to speak to merits of petition
 - Committee members to inquire about the merits of the petition
6. The committee shall hold an executive session to make the following recommendations to the House:
 - Grievance Founded
 - Grievance Founded with Committee Recommendation
 - Grievance Unfounded
7. The committee is also responsible for furnishing committee findings/report to the full House; minority findings/report is also appropriate.
8. Appropriate remedies recommended by the committee and considered by the full House may include:
 - Corrective legislation
 - Recommendation for removal of public official
 - Recommendation of invalidation of prior decision/order
 - Compensation
 - Such other relief as the committee deems appropriate

COMMITTEE PROCEDURE

Committee Purpose and Duties

The duty of the Redress of Grievances Committee is to consider petitions for the redress of grievances submitted to the House pursuant to Part I, Articles 31 and 32 of the New Hampshire Constitution. All petitions for redress of grievances to the House must be submitted by a member of the House, and clearly and succinctly state the grievance and a proposed legislative remedy. After hearing from the member sponsoring the petition, it shall be the duty of the committee chair to determine if any petition is the proper subject of a public hearing and to limit hearings as appropriate.

Public Hearing

- Initial hearing consists of presentation by Sponsor (and Petitioner) with sponsor ensuring an efficient presentation.
- The burden shall remain on the Sponsor/Petitioner to exhibit the merits of the petition and the appropriateness of the proposed legislative remedy.
- Upon notification, subsequent hearing to provide Respondent/affected parties opportunity to address petition.
- Subsequent hearings may also allow members of the public to speak to merits of petition.
- Committee members may ask questions for clarity but not to challenge petition or engage in debate.
- The committee shall direct its inquiry to the merits of the petition before it and should not expand its scope.

Executive Session

- Committee may make the following recommendations to the full House:
 - Grievance founded
 - Grievance founded with committee recommendation
 - Grievance unfounded
- Committee is responsible for furnishing committee findings/report to full House; minority findings/report is also appropriate.
- Committee should consider the merits of the petition, whether the Petitioner has pursued alternate administrative/judicial remedies and whether a legislative remedy is appropriate.
- Appropriate remedies may include:
 - Corrective legislation
 - Recommendation for removal of public official
 - Recommendation of invalidation of prior decision/order
 - Compensation
 - Such other relief as the committee deems appropriate

DRAFTING PETITIONS PROCEDURE

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE SERVICES

1. On behalf of a citizen who has been aggrieved by a government entity, a legislator may sponsor a petition for redress of grievance (PET). The Sponsor must ascertain the following before submitting the drafting request to the Office of Legislative Services (OLS):

- Assurance that complaint is with a government entity and not a private dispute.
- Assurance complaint is in compliance with Legislative Ethics Committee INTERPRETIVE RULING 2012-#3, NOVEMBER 14, 2012.
- Parties aggrieved are in agreement to pursue petition
- Relief being sought is something legislature can grant
- Parties pursued available alternative administrative, judicial or legislative remedies

2. The legislative sponsor shall file a PET drafting request with OLS which shall include:

- Name of a) petitioner (aggrieved party) including address and b) government entity including address
- Succinct summary of grievance including description of remedy being sought

3. Once the PET draft is prepared by the OLS drafter, OLS will then:

- Submit it to the Sponsor for approval.
- Submit it to the Chairman of the Redress of Grievances committee for approval.
 - The Chairman has the right to accept or reject the PET.
 - The Chairman may return the PET draft to the Sponsor and OLS for necessary changes.
- Assure that both Sponsor and Chairman sign off on PET

4. OLS delivers the signed off PET to the House Clerk for processing upon final acceptance by the Chairman.

SUCCINCT SUMMARY OF GRIEVANCE

The seal of the New Hampshire General Court is centered on the page. It features a circular border with the words "GENERAL COURT" at the top and "NEW HAMPSHIRE" at the bottom. Inside the circle is a detailed illustration of the New Hampshire State House, a large classical building with a prominent dome and a steeple on top. The seal is overlaid on a series of horizontal lines intended for writing the summary of the grievance.

PROPOSED REMEDY

A series of horizontal lines provided for writing the proposed remedy.
