For Breach of Oath of Office
and
Violation of 18 USC § 241 - Conspiracy against Rights

"I know no safe depository of the ultimate powers of the society but the people themselves: and if we think them not enlightened enough to exercise their control with a wholesome discretion, the remedy is not to take it from them, but to inform their discretion."

Thomas Jefferson 1820

I, John Hikel one of the People of New [Print Name or Appellation]

Hampshire, come forward to complain against Stephen Shurtleff and 188 other members of the New Hampshire House of Representatives for Breaching their Oaths of Office and Conspiring against My Rights. I hereby present facts known and unknown to you in support of this complaint.

1. Stephen Shurtleff, a member of the New Hampshire House of Representatives, for the purpose of “accepting the trust” according to Article 84 of the New Hampshire Constitution, has sworn or affirmed the following Oaths.
 - a. I, Stephen Shurtleff, do solemnly swear, that I will bear faith and true allegiance to the United States of America and the state of New Hampshire, and will support the constitution thereof. So help me God.

Verified Complaint of Breach of Oath of Office and Conspiracy against Rights

- b. I, Stephen Shurtleff, do solemnly and sincerely swear and affirm that I will faithfully and impartially discharge and perform all duties incumbent on me as Representative according to the best of my abilities, agreeably to the rules and regulations of this constitution and laws of the state of New Hampshire. So help me God.
2. The members of the New Hampshire House Criminal Justice and Public Safety Committee, hereinafter "the Committee," have also sworn their own proper Oaths of Office for the purpose of "accepting the trust" as have the 189 members of the New Hampshire House of Representatives who voted in favor of House Bill 135 on March 27th, 2013.
3. Having been duly elected and having sworn or affirmed their oaths of office, Stephen Shurtleff, as well as all other New Hampshire House of Representatives members mentioned herein were lawfully seated as the lawgivers mentioned in Part the First, Article 38 of the New-Hampshire Bill of Rights, hereinafter Article 38.
4. According to Article 38, The People of New Hampshire have a "right to require of their lawgivers" ..., "an exact and constant observance of"..."the fundamental principles of the constitution"..."in the formation and execution of the laws necessary for the good administration of government."
5. Stephen Shurtleff willfully violated his Oath of Office and Article 38 of the New Hampshire Bill of Rights by submitting a bill, hereinafter HB135, that was clearly contrary to the fundamental principles of the New Hampshire Constitution.
6. During the Committees executive session, twelve members of the Committee voted in favor of HB135 and thereby violated their Oaths of Office and the Rights of the People secured by Article 38.
7. On March 27th, 2013, contrary to the clear language of Article 38, Stephen Shurtleff as well as 188 other members of the New Hampshire House of Representatives again violated their Oaths of

Verified Complaint of Breach of Oath of Office and Conspiracy against Rights

Office by voting in favor of HB135 and thereby Breaching the Public Trust of the People of New Hampshire mentioned in #2 above.

8. Contrary to 18 USC § 241, Stephen Shurtleff , the 12 Committee Members and the 188 House members, hereinafter "the accused," thus conspired to deprive Me, one of the People of New Hampshire, of My Rights by voting in favor of HB135.
9. The accused have thus breached Part the Second, Article 5 of the New Hampshire Constitution by voting in favor of a bill which is "repugnant and contrary to this constitution"..."for the necessary support and defense of the government thereof."
10. The accused derive no immunity from Article 30 of the New Hampshire Bill of Rights as this immunity only extends to deliberation, speech and debate and not to the formation of laws which are clearly repugnant and contrary to the fundamental principles of the New Hampshire Constitution.
11. The accused derive no immunity from Article 30 of the New Hampshire Bill of Rights as this immunity only extends to deliberation, speech and debate and not to casting votes in favor of laws which are clearly repugnant and contrary to the fundamental principles of the New Hampshire Constitution.
12. Contrary to Article 38, the accused, by their actions, have disqualified themselves and are thus ineligible to hold office as lawgivers in the New Hampshire General Court because their actions prove they have failed to meet the requirements set by the People in Article 38;
 - a. "A frequent recurrence to the fundamental principles of the constitution, and a constant adherence to justice, moderation, temperance, industry, frugality, and all the social virtues, are indispensably necessary to preserve the blessings of liberty and good government; the people ought, therefore, to have a particular regard to all those principles in the choice of their officers and representatives, and they have a right to require of their lawgivers and magistrates, an exact and constant observance of them, in the formation and execution of the laws necessary for the good administration of government."

13. In breach of the 2nd Amendment to the United States constitution and Article 24 of the New Hampshire Bill of Rights, the accused threaten, via HB 135, to drastically infringe and diminish My Right to bear arms in defense of My State.

a. Noah Webster 1828 – militia - n.

i. [L. from miles, a soldier; Gr. war, to fight, combat, contention. The primary sense of fighting is to strive, struggle, drive, or to strike, to beat, Eng. toil, L. molior; Heb. to labor or toil.]

ii. The body of soldiers in a state enrolled for discipline, but not engaged in actual service except in emergencies; as distinguished from regular troops, whose sole occupation is war or military service.

iii. The militia of a country are the able bodied men organized into companies, regiments and brigades, with officers of all grades, and required by law to attend military exercises on certain days only, but at other times left to pursue their usual occupations.

14. In breach of Article 2 of the New Hampshire Bill of Rights, the accused threaten, via HB 135, to diminish My Right to, "in a word" seek and obtain Happiness.

15. In breach of Article 2-a of the New Hampshire Bill of Rights, the accused threaten, via HB 135, to diminish My Right to keep and bear arms in defense of Myself, My family, My property and the state wherever I may be.

16. In breach of Article 3 of the New Hampshire Bill of Rights, the accused threaten, via HB 135, to void any Rights I may have surrendered to secure others enumerated in the Bills of Rights.

Verified Complaint of Breach of Oath of Office and Conspiracy against Rights

17. In breach of Article 4 of the New Hampshire Bill of Rights, the accused threaten, via HB 135, to violate My conscience by diminishing My capacity to protect the People of New Hampshire wherever I may be.
18. In breach of Article 10 of the New Hampshire Bill of Rights, the accused threaten, via HB 135, to pervert the ends of government and to endanger the public liberty, by eradicating My ability to prevent the very same from happening.
19. In breach of Article 12 of the New Hampshire Bill of Rights, the accused threaten, via HB 135, to neuter My responsibility to contribute My personal service to protect the community whenever I may be in it.
20. In breach of Article 12-a of the New Hampshire Bill of Rights, the accused threaten, via HB 135, to indirectly steal My intangible property and give it to another person for the purpose of private development.

a. Noah Webster 1828 - Property:

- i. #1 - A peculiar quality of any thing; that which is inherent in a subject, or naturally essential to it; called by logicians an essential mode. Thus color is a property of light; extension and figure are properties of bodies.
- ii. #2 - An acquired or artificial quality; that which is given by art or bestowed by man. The poem has the properties which constitute excellence.

b. New Hampshire RSA 637:2 Definitions. The following definitions are applicable to this chapter:

- i. "Property" means anything of value, including real estate, tangible and intangible personal property, captured or domestic animals and birds, written instruments or other writings representing or embodying rights concerning real or personal property, labor, services, or otherwise containing any thing of value to the owner, commodities of a public utility nature such as telecommunications, gas, electricity, steam, or water, and trade secrets, meaning the whole or any portion of any scientific or technical information, design, process, procedure, formula or invention which the owner thereof intends to be available only to persons selected by him.

- c. My property includes, among the others listed herein:
 - i. My Article 7 Right of self-governance
 - ii. My duty to protect Article 13 Conscientious Objectors
 - iii. My Article 12 responsibility to the community

21. Whereas, due to the similar efforts of many of these same usurpers of justice, demands/petitions for Article 31 redress have proven to be unattainable through the General Court, I, one of the People of New Hampshire, have no option but to seek redress through this agency by filing this criminal complaint against the accused for conspiring against My Rights in violation of the Public Trust and their Oaths of Office.

- a. Conspiracy against rights. 18 USC § 241
 - i. Verified Complaint of Breach of Oath of Office and Conspiracy against Rights

In the Year of Our Lord Two Thousand Thirteen

AN ACT relative to physical force in defense of a person and relative to the definition of non-deadly force.

Be it Enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court convened:

1 Physical Force in Defense of a Person. Amend RSA 627:1 4, III to read as follows:

2 III. A person is not justified in using deadly force on another to defend himself or herself or a
3 third person from deadly force by the other if he or she knows that he or she and the third person
4 can, with complete safety:

5 (a) Retreat from the encounter, except that he or she is not required to retreat if he or 6 she is within his or her dwelling[;] OR its curtilage, [~~or anywhere he or she has a right to be,~~] and was 7 not the initial aggressor; or

8 (b) Surrender property to a person asserting a claim of right thereto; or

9 (c) Comply with a demand that he or she abstain from performing an act which he or she 10 is not obliged to perform; nor is the use of deadly force justifiable when, with the purpose of causing 11 death or serious bodily harm, the person has provoked the use of force against himself or herself in 12 the same encounter; or

13 (d) If he or she is a law enforcement officer or a private person assisting the officer at the 14 officer's direction and was acting pursuant to RSA 627:5, the person need not retreat.

15 2 Effective Date. This act shall take effect 60 days after its passage.
