v.

Robert H. Mills

Motior to Reconsider

And for a hearing.

NOW COMES The Plaintiff State of New Hampshire, by Haas, the Private prosecutor within ten (10) days of the Nov. 22nd decision by Judge MacLeod and states that although an assistant can act for his boss: The Attorney General, as I've been told by Deputy A.G. Bud Fitch today citing some RSA Ch. 7+ 21-M (to read later), the bottom line is that WHOEVER must be clothed with the Analyzing Suit (like a Space Suit) to analyze the evidence as stated in case law. If the judge thinks not then please say so in a hearing WITH the evidence to be brought to court of the ACTUAL NO TRESPASSING Notice! A hearing is claimed for Art. 14 complete justice as per your RSA Ch. 92:2 oath to Art. 83 of the New Hampshire Constitution.

Then to proceed onto the trial or if not then to have something to give to my State Rep. +/- or Senator to put in an LSR to a House/Senate Bill to elevate this case-law up to the level of a statute that "shall" be the case of this analyzation before any future attempts to nol pros a case.
